Director's Note

Young Frankenstein is, in a lot of ways, a tribute show. It pays homage to the nostalgic black and white film starring Gene Wilder, the cheeky comedic-horror genre as a whole, and ties it all together in the style of classic, old-school musical theatre that we all know and love. Everyone in Scotch'n'Soda is here because we love theatre and the way it can give us a break from reality to smile, laugh, and feel along with the actors onstage. Theatre is such an important part of so many lives, and our show is a light-hearted reminder of how much fun spending a night at the theater can be.

Thanks to the incredible work of every single person involved in this production, Young Frankenstein will send you away humming show-tunes and really feeling the "Transylvania Mania."
